Scripture

Luke 6:12-13 One of those days Jesus went out to a mountainside to pray, and spent the night praying to God. 13 When morning came, he called his disciples to him and chose twelve of them, whom he also designated apostles.

Luke 6:40

40 The student is not above the teacher, but everyone who is fully trained will be like their teacher.

Luke 6:46-49

46 “Why do you call me, ‘Lord, Lord,’ and do not do what I say? 47 As for everyone who comes to me and hears my words and puts them into practice, I will show you what they are like. 48 They are like a man building a house, who dug down deep and laid the foundation on rock. When a flood came, the torrent struck that house but could not shake it, because it was well built. 49 But the one who hears my words and does not put them into practice is like a man who built a house on the ground without a foundation. The moment the torrent struck that house, it collapsed and its destruction was complete.”

Discussion Questions

Question #1

Imagine you and three other kids went to Disney World for a day. When you got home, you each had to tell someone about it. One friend had to tell their little sister, another had to tell their Grandparents, another had to give a report on it at a school assembly, and you had to tell the grown ups at your parents office. Do you think all the reports would sound the same?

Why?

Today we read from the Gospel of Luke, that is like saying the Good News about Jesus written by Luke. There were actually four different people who wrote an account of Jesus; Matthew, Mark, Luke, John. One thing that is really cool, is that they are all a little different. This is because each person wrote to a certain audience, in their own words!

Question #2

Did you know not everyone in Zeeland knows about Jesus, and why he died for them?

Are you surprised?

How does that make you feel?

Question #3

When you meet a new friend, how do you get to know them?

How can you get to know Jesus?

How can you spend time with Jesus, to get to know Him?

What is one part of Jesus you would like to imitate, so that others can meet Him through you?

Prayer

What can we pray for you about?

Do you have a friend we can pray for?
